THOUGHTS FROM FR. RICHARD
 PENSAMIENTOS DE PADRE RICARDO

FR KEVIN SENDS
 GREETINGS & PRAYERS

My dear sisters and brothers ...

... what a blessing all of you in our St. Bonaventure community are to me ... and to each other! This is just a short note to thank each of you for your ongoing prayers and care. Although I miss you all very much, I'm grateful for this time set aside to 'regroup' and re-center. I want you to know that I am very much with you and hold you deep in my heart and in my prayer. May God bless you (and me!) and the entire community of welcome, love and care that you are. I look forward to being with you again and I hold you close within me ... f. Kevin

■ SPIRITED MINISTRY FAIRE

Thank you to the members of the Parish Council for their organizational expertise at putting on the Ministry Faire two weekends ago. There was certainly a spirit of community there, a lot of interest and people talking with one another. We all have a great deal to share with one another. Many people came forward for the first time: new lectors, Eucharistic ministers, art and environment committee members, hospitality ministers. Even eight new volunteers for the upkeep of the parish gardens around the church. That was just what I picked up in one conversation. And many more.

■ ON THE ROAD TO INITIATION

Last Sunday afternoon, 10 persons entered the "Inquiry phase" of the Catechumene. They are a multi-cultural and intergenerational group from interesting backgrounds and experiences. We are all "incarnations" of God. That is how we are all connected, even before Baptism. The process of entering the Catholic Church helps us to understand and embrace who we are. Before knowing what the Catholic Church stands for, we have to begin to understand the spiritual journey and where we have first encountered God. That is what the group will be doing for the next couple of months. It is not too late still to join. Please call and speak with Eileen Limberg, 672-5800.

■ COME TO BLUE MASS

Come to the annual Blue Mass at Oakland's Christ the Light Cathedral on Friday morning October 14 where Bishop Michael Barber will celebrate the "First Responders"-- the police and firemen, the emergency medical personnel and their families who serve Alameda and Contra Costa Counties with such "Distinction." Not only do we thank and trust them, but we pray for their well-being and safety.

"We honor both the brave men and women who serve and protect our communities every moment of every single day," writes Bishop Barber, "and those fallen heroes who made the ultimate sacrifice in the line of duty."

■ WHO IS THE NEW PRIEST?

Fr. Shantharaj Thomas is a Jesuit priest studying at the Jesuit School of Theology in Berkeley. We had contacted the Rector of the Jesuit community who emailed the Jesuit community there of our interest in someone who would like to become a part of our community here and who would preside at weekend liturgies.

Fr. Thomas is studying Systematic Theology pursuing his Doctorate. Hopefully, he will be with us for a couple of years. Coincidentally, Fr. Thomas is a member of the Jesuit Province of Bangalore, India. He does not know or have any connection with Fr. TC George although they are from the same City.

For pronunciation purposes, you may address Fr. Thomas as Fr. Thomas. Shortly, he will be writing a small biography for us to read so that we might know him a little bit better. He will begin to rotate through the weekend schedule celebrating two Masses a weekend.

 FROM CHRISTA FAIRFIELD

■ FAMILY 2 FAMILY

In June, St. Bonaventure and our 'Family to Family' ministry welcomed a refugee family—the Ahmadi family from Afghanistan. The Ahmadi family consists of father and mother - Najib and Zainab respectively, along with their three children: Faisal (son), Marwa (daughter), and Bilal (son). Through your generosity we were able to get them started in their apartment with furniture, food, kitchenware, bedding, toiletries, etc. Najib is anxious to get his driver's license and find a job; and Zainab is learning English. The two oldest children are now starting school.

However, there is still much to accomplish. We need helping hands to drive to doctor's appointments; help with instructions for learning the rules of the road (driving permit and driving practice); driving the family to food pantries in the area; tutoring for the children and ESL tutoring for Zainab, along with other miscellaneous needs. Importantly, your contributions to the 'Family to Family' ministry would help supplement their rent and their everyday and monthly expenses. You can make out your check to "St. Bonaventure Church", Family to Family in the memo area. Also, gift cards to Target and Walmart would be most welcome.

If you can help in any way, please contact 'Family to Family' through Jenelle Abrams at jenelle.abrams@yahoo.com; 727-8531. Thank you.

■ JUBILEE YEAR OF MERCY –
 Twenty-fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time: Jubilee for Catechists

Amos castigates religious people who, “comfortably complacent” (6:1, 5), ignore the unfolding collapse of culture, nation, religion (6:6). In Jesus’ parable, such complacency becomes the rich man’s undoing. He neither hurt nor harmed Lazarus, neither denied him leftovers nor ordered him removed. That is Jesus’ devastating point. The rich man did nothing wrong to Lazarus; he just did nothing at all good for him. Only in death, separated by “a great chasm” (Luke 16:26), could the rich man finally see Lazarus, whom he had failed to see in life, right before his eyes. Like the rich man’s “five brothers still in my father’s house” (16:27–28), we who are alive in the Church still have time to see that same Someone, Jesus, lying neglected right at our door—and time to do something. Who, specifically, concretely, practically, is Lazarus in my life? What can I do for that Jesus-in-the-flesh during this Jubilee Year of Mercy?

FAITH FORMATION FOR CHILDREN AND YOUTH

■ REGISTRATION FOR RELIGIOUS EDUCATION CLASSES

St. Bonaventure's religious education classes will begin the week of October 2. Our Faith Formation programs begin with children as young as age 4 and kindergarten and continue through high school.

We offer a Sunday morning program for pre-school age 4 and kindergarten-age children that meets during the 9am Mass. This program is designed to share stories from the Bible and to engage the youngest of our community to grow in their faith, with interactive activities. We also offer classes after school during the week for students who are in the 1st through 5th grade. The Jr. High program meets on Thursday from 7-8:30pm. Confirmation/High School meets on Sunday. Each grade builds on the child's faith journey with Jesus. This includes preparation for the sacraments of our faith. We will share the weekly Gospel with students to increase their awareness of Jesus' life and teachings. We will talk about the foundations of our Catholic faith, how we live it and how we build that faith to become who Jesus wants us to be.

We will meet your child wherever they are in their faith journey, with class offerings for Baptism, First Communion, Reconciliation and Confirmation. We also have Sacramental Preparation classes that are taught in Spanish.

Registration for Faith Formation Classes has begun. You are able to register in the church office from the hours of 9am to 4pm Monday through Friday (we are closed from 12:30-1:30pm daily). Registration forms are available in the church foyer, in the church office and on our website at www.stbonaventure.net. Just click on the link for Faith Formation Registration.

We look forward to having your child in our Faith Formation Programs!

■ CONTEMPLATIVE PRAYER

"But whenever you pray, go into your room and shut the door and pray to your Father who is in secret; and your Father who sees in secret will reward you."—(Mt 6:6)

The practice of contemplative (or silent) prayer is just that: "practice." It's not always easy and some days are better than others, but the results are worth it. An opportunity to sit quietly with God – not asking for anything and letting the worries and busyness of the world go away. We start with a short reflection, enter into 20 minutes of silent prayer and end with the Our Father. Join us Tuesday 4:05-4:30pm. Just come when you can. Call Eileen (☎ 672-5800 x2217) if you have questions.

■ MARRIAGE ENCOUNTER

As men and women of God we are to “pursue righteousness, devotion, faith, love, patience and gentleness.” We are called to keep his commandment to love one another as he has loved us. Is this evident in your lives and marriages? Strengthen, renew and rekindle your marriage by attending a Worldwide Marriage Encounter on Nov. 18-20. Early registration, 4 to 6 weeks out, is highly recommended. For more information, contact Mike & Jeanne (☎ 925.672.2016) or Joe & Sue (☎ 925.680.7767) now or go to www.oaklandwwme.org. Weekend presentations are in the Pleasanton/Dublin area.

■ LUCAS 16, 19-31

En aquel tiempo, Jesús dijo a los fariseos: “Había un hombre rico, que se vestía de púrpura y telas finas y banqueteaba espléndidamente cada día. Y un mendigo, llamado Lázaro, yacía a la entrada de su casa, cubierto de llagas y ansiando llenarse con las sobras que caían de la mesa del rico. Y hasta los perros se acercaban a lamerle las llagas.

Sucedió, pues, que murió el mendigo y los ángeles lo llevaron al seno de Abraham. Murió también el rico y lo enterraron. Estaba éste en el lugar de castigo, en medio de tormentos, cuando levantó los ojos y vio a lo lejos a Abraham y a Lázaro junto a él.

Entonces grito: ‘Padre Abraham, ten piedad de mí. Manda a Lázaro que moje en agua la punta de su dedo y me refresque la lengua, porque me torturan estas llamas.’ Pero Abraham le contestó: ‘Hijo, recuerda que en tu vida recibiste bienes y Lázaro, en cambio males. Por eso él goza ahora de consuelo, mientras que tú sufres tormentos. Además, entre ustedes y nosotros se abre un abismo inmenso, que nadie puede cruzar, ni hacia allá ni hacia acá.’

El rico insistió: ‘Te ruego, entonces, padre Abraham, que mandes a Lázaro a mi casa, pues me quedan allá cinco hermanos, para que les advierta y no acaben también ellos en este lugar de tormentos.’ Abraham le dijo: ‘Tienen a Moisés y a los profetas; que los escuchen.’ Pero el rico replicó: ‘No padre Abraham. Si un muerto va a decírselo, entonces sí se arrepentirán.’ Abraham repuso: ‘Si no escuchan a Moisés y a los profetas, no harán caso, ni aunque resucite un muerto.’”

Nuestra vida terrena está llena de divisiones de todo tipo. Los seres humanos hemos dividido el planeta que Dios nos ha dado. Hemos creado fronteras, levantado muros, colocado banderas... todo ello para ser y sentirnos diferentes. Esta división es la que crea conflictos en nuestro interior y en nuestra relación diaria con el mundo. Dios nos ha dado un solo mundo para una única humanidad; nosotros en nombre de la diversidad, de la justicia o de lo que sea, nos hemos encargado una y otra vez de marcar las diferencias. Los primeros cristianos y los santos padres encararon este tema y nos dejaron vidas ejemplares y páginas magníficas sobre el derecho de los pobres y la justicia que emana del Evangelio.

En las relaciones humanas hemos hecho lo mismo. Nos hemos inventado las castas y los escalafones sociales para dejar bien claro que no somos iguales; que “yo valgo más que tú...” El Evangelio nos trae una parábola donde se destaca una de estas diferencias sociales. Nos habla de un pobre y de un rico, ambos en esta vida y en la otra. Los judíos pensaban que la prosperidad material era una señal más que evidente de la bendición de Dios. Los pobres eran unos malditos. No tenían nada, ni siquiera—según ellos—la bendición de Dios.

El mensaje de Jesús se predica especialmente a los pobres y en ellos tiene su profunda resonancia. No es que se descarte a los ricos del camino de la salvación ya que Jesús no les censura su riqueza sino la falta de compasión hacia los pobres. La falta de compasión sea en un rico o en un pobre es muestra de un rechazo hacia el amor de Dios. La compasión es uno de los certeros caminos para llegar a la salvación.

Lázaro aparece como un hombre mísero en todos los aspectos de su vida; no tenía salud, ni comida, ni casa, ni amigos, ni abrigo alguno. Sólo tenía la esperanza de que algo sobrante saciara su indignidad. No hay mayor pobreza que no saber salir de ella.

Para los cristianos el tema de los pobres es central. Sentirse pobre es reconocer que Dios tiene en nuestra vida la totalidad de nuestra salvación. No confío en lo que he podido acumular, no me fío de lo que he podido aprender. Todo es para ponerlo al servicio de los más menesterosos para llegar juntos a unas sociedades más justas y humanas. Los seres humanos de todas las épocas siempre hemos tenido un déficit de humanidad, de ahí que el Evangelio nunca pierda actualidad. Jesús no condena la riqueza en sí sino el uso que se hace de ella; condena el egoísmo que nos impide llegar a caminos de solidaridad.

Quien está apegado a las riquezas (dinero, prestigio, seguridades de tipo intelectual, poder, el creerse que se tiene el monopolio del Evangelio..) no puede percibir el camino del Reino de Dios. Los pobres, los que son capaces de desprenderse de sus distintas riquezas y ponerlas al servicio de los demás, son los que están más disponibles a aceptar y vivir la fe.

■ AÑO JUBILAR DE LA MISERICORDIA Vigésimo Sexto Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

El profeta Amós reprende a los religiosos quienes, "cómodos y complacientes" (6:1, 5), ignoran el colapso del despliegue de cultura, nación y religión (6:6). En la parábola de Jesús, tal complacencia se convierte en la perdición del hombre rico. El hombre rico ni hirió ni perjudicó a Lázaro, tampoco le negó las sobras ni ordenó quitarlo de ahí. Esto es algo que devastó a Jesús. El hombre rico no le hizo nada malo a Lázaro; sencillamente no hizo en absoluto nada bueno por él.

Sólo en la muerte, separadas por "una gran abismo" (Lucas 16:26), pudo el hombre rico finalmente ver a Lázaro, a quien no había podido ver en vida. Al igual que el hombre rico habían "cinco hermanos en casa de mi padre" (16:27 – 28), nosotros que vivimos en la Iglesia todavía tenemos tiempo para ver alguien, necesitado o descuidado en nuestra puerta y aún tenemos tiempo para hacer algo. ¿Quién, específicamente, en concreto, prácticamente, es Lázaro en mi vida? ¿Qué puedo hacer durante este Año Jubilar de la Misericordia?

■ FRASES DEL PAPA FRANCISCO

“Miren a Jesús; miren a Jesús en el hambriento, en el preso, en el enfermo, en el desnudo, en la persona que no tiene empleo para sustentar a su familia. Miren a Jesús en estos hermanos y hermanas nuestros. Miren a Jesús en aquellos que están solos y tristes, en aquellos que cometen un error y necesitan consejo, en aquellos que necesitan entrar en el camino con él en silencio para poder sentirse acompañados.”
