THOUGHTS FROM FR. RICHARD MANGINI

PENTECOST: WE BECOME THE STORY

The story begins with the Birth of Jesus and ends today with the revelation of the Holy Spirit in Pentecost. We think that we know the story or at least some parts of it, because we have heard some stories and teachings that Jesus gave. What we do not know, or what we are not too keenly aware of, is that God tells the Story of Jesus' Life so as to encourage us to live the story in our own senses.

But God can only do so much, that is to offer the invitation, but he would never force us to accept it.

Oh yes, we all know that we receive the Holy Spirit at the moment of our Baptism. And certainly again at the moment of Confirmation, as our teenagers did last weekend. What we do not receive is some static gift or trophy. Rather, we receive an affirming presence that begins to rustle through our life as an amazing, encouraging spirit and support.

At the end of the first century, the evangelist St. John describes the Holy Spirit as an "Advocate," who tags around with us every moment of our lives, accompanying us on our mission through life. One of the gifts we receive is a different sense of hearing, to hear what God has to say first. Oh yes, the Holy Spirit is always whispering words of truth and hopefulness. The Holy Spirit is like a divine push that we sometimes need to fulfill God's dreams for our lives. There are so many other dreams out there. It is so easy to get sidetracked down a dead end.

Today is a day to reflect about the experience of the Holy Spirit in our lives. Just last week as I was waiting for breakfast in a restaurant in Santa Barbara, knowing that I would not have much time for private prayer before a wedding, the Holy Spirit said not to be impatient, but to begin to look around and begin to look at and recognize each person sitting there and to be aware of God in them. That would be my private prayer for that day. The experience has invited me to be much more aware of groups of people and to praise and thank Jesus. There is more than one place to find Jesus and more than one kind of private prayer.

Also, I experience the Holy Spirit when I am in the process of preparing a homily. I start by reading the appointed Scripture, do some study on them, think and begin to ask what message God wants to get across. I even start to write something. Then I have to wait for the Holy Spirit to appear in my mind and heart. My first attempt usually is not the Holy Spirit. I have to wait, usually by going and doing something else, letting it all sink in more deeply. At some point several hours later, I sit down again. Then, the Holy Spirit begins to come into my hand and heart as I write.

A long time ago, I saw this 17th century painting of one of the Evangelists writing his Gospel with this Holy Spirit figure standing behind him and guiding his hand. I remember thinking, really? This picture has stayed with me all these years, and I must confess that I feel the hand as I begin to write my final homily.

For those who use the "Give Us This Day" monthly prayer magazine, I recommend paying particular attention to the reflection piece on page 214 for today—"The Living Link."

"The Holy Spirit is nothing more than God alive and active in the world. If Jesus is how God burst forth into human history, then the Spirit is how God continues to burn in the human hearts. The Spirit is God's love for each one of us. It is God's loving presence within me."

This is our story.

'THANK YOU' FROM ST. MARY'S CENTER

Thank you to all who made the May 6 St. Mary's Senior Center dinner a huge success! Actually, a simple thank you does not convey our gratitude for the overwhelming response from St. Bonaventure parishioners. An avalanche of bingo prizes, coffee, cakes and monetary donations made this the most successful outreach in recent memory! A big thank you also to our loyal volunteers, servers, and cooks—and a welcome to our newest volunteers Justin and Cami. The seniors are so grateful! God bless you.

PENSAMIENTOS DEL PADRE
RICARDO MANGINI

PENTECOSTES: NOS
CONVERTIMOS EN LA
HISTORIA

La historia comienza con el nacimiento de Jesús y termina hoy con la revelación del Espíritu Santo en Pentecostés. Creemos que conocemos la historia o al menos alguna parte de ella porque hemos escuchado algunas historias y enseñanzas que Jesús dio. Lo que no sabemos, o de lo que no estamos muy conscientes, es que Dios cuenta la historia de la vida de Jesús para animarnos a vivir la historia por nuestra cuenta.

Pero Dios solo puede hacer una cosa y es ofrecer la invitación, pero nunca obligará a que la aceptemos.

Oh si, todos sabemos que recibimos el Espíritu Santo en el momento de nuestro Bautismo. Y nuevamente en el momento de la Confirmación como lo hicieron los adolescentes el fin de semana pasada. Lo que no recibimos es un regalo estático o trofeo; más bien, recibimos una presencia afirmativa que comienza a crujir a través de nuestra vida como un espíritu y apoyo sorprendente y alentador.

Al final del primer siglo, el evangelista San Juan describe el Espíritu Santo como un "Abogado", que nos identifica a cada momento de nuestra vida, acompañándonos en nuestra misión a través de la vida. Uno de los obsequios que recibimos es un tipo diferente de oído o audición para escuchar lo que Dios tiene que decir primero. Oh si, El Espíritu Santo siempre está susurrando palabras de verdad y esperanza. El Espíritu Santo es como un impulso divino que a veces necesitamos para cumplir los sueños de Dios en nuestras vidas. Por ahí hay muchos otros sueños. Es muy fácil desviarse hacia un callejón sin salida.

Hoy en día hay muchas maneras para reflexionar sobre la experiencia del Espíritu Santo en nuestras vidas. La semana pasada, mientras esperaba el desayuno en un restaurante en Santa Barbara, sabiendo que no tenía mucho tiempo para orar en privado antes de una boda, el Espíritu Santo me dijo que no me impacientara, sino que comenzara a mirar alrededor y reconocer a cada persona que estaba sentada allí y estar consciente que Dios estaba con ellos. Esa sería mi oración privada para ese día. La experiencia me ha invitado a ser mucho más consciente de los grupos de personas, alabar y agradecer a Jesús. Hay más de un lugar para encontrar a Jesús y más de un tipo de oración privada.

Además, experimento el Espíritu Santo cuando estoy en el proceso de preparar una homilía. Empiezo leyendo las Escrituras señaladas, hago un estudio sobre ellas, pienso y empiezo a preguntarme que mensaje quiere Dios que yo transmita. Incluso empiezo a escribir algo. Entonces tengo que esperar que el Espíritu Santo aparezca en mi mente y mi corazón. Mi primer intento generalmente no es El Espíritu Santo. Generalmente tengo que esperar haciendo otra cosa, dejando que todo se hunda más profundamente. Entonces, mientras escribo el Espíritu Santo empieza a venir a mi mente, mano y corazón.

Hace mucho tiempo, vi una pintura del siglo XVII de uno de los evangelistas escribiendo su Evangelio con una figura del Espíritu Santo parada detrás de él y guiándolo de la mano. Esta imagen se ha quedado conmigo todos estos años y debo confesar que siento la mano cuando estoy escribiendo el final de mi homilía.

Para aquellos que usan la revista mensual de oración "Give Us This Day", recomiendo prestar especial atención al párrafo de reflexión en la página 214 para hoy: The Living Link."

"El Espíritu Santo no es más que Dios vivo y activo en el mundo. Si Jesús es como Dios que estalló en la historia humana, entonces el Espíritu es la forma en que Dios continúa ardiendo en los corazones humanos. El Espíritu es el amor de Dios para cada uno de nosotros. Es la presencia amorosa de Dios dentro de mí."

¡Esta es nuestra historia!
