PARISH LIFE THOUGHTS
FROM CHRISTA FAIRFIELD

■ SECURE YOUR ITEMS

Our Christmas Eve service was marred by a vehicle break-in during the Mass, between 8 and 9 pm. A parishioner's car window was smashed and an expensive jacket stolen from the rear seat. The car was in the rear of the parking lot, near the back gate, which was open to allow faster exits at the end of Mass.

Please don't leave any items visible in your car – put them in the trunk. For the thief, the theft was almost risk-free. He had plenty of time to "case" many cars, because of the length of the Mass. Even if the victim's car had been alarmed, any noise would probably not have been noticed in time, because the thief could escape quickly through the rear gate.

■ LENTEN BOOK GROUP- MERCY IN THE CITY

Are you wondering how you can fit the acts of Mercy into your busy schedule? So did Kerry Weber, a young Mercy Associate and managing editor of America magazine with a full work and social schedule.

We will be following her Lenten Journey of practicing the seven Corporal Works of Mercy in a meaningful way. Can she do it? Can we? We're going to find out together.

This Lent we are offering two groups: an afternoon and evening group. You can jump back and forth as your schedules require. If you miss a week, don't worry - we'll still be here. Join us when you can.

Details:

The book: Mercy in the City, by Kerry Weber

The day: Tuesdays (5 weeks) starting February 9 followed by Feb. 16, Mar. 1, Mar. 8, Mar. 15

The times: Afternoon meetings from 1:30 to 3:00pm

Evening meetings from 7:30 to 9:00 pm

The Place:

Afternoons: Classroom A-1

Evenings: Classroom A-3

More details: Books will be available in the parish office for $15. You can also purchase it in digital format for your e-book reader. We do ask that you sign-up for your time of preference, but you can always show up at the other time. You can sign-up at the parish office or by emailing eileen.limberg@stbonaventure.net.

OPENING OUR DOORS
YOU ARE INVITED TO THE RECTORY ON FEBRUARY 17

Pope Francis has reminded us that "The Church is the house of mercy." Each of our homes is a small house of faith. As we enter the Church's Jubilee Year of Mercy our Parish is working to create opportunities for intimate gatherings for parishioners to come together and get to know each other.

On February 17 we will gather from 7:00pm to 8:30pm for hospitality, conversation and prayer. An invitation is extended to all, but especially to those parishioners who want to get to know others in our Church family or want to learn more about the great offerings and opportunities at St. Bonaventure. We want to meet you, greet you and welcome you into the full life of God's house of mercy.

Because the rectory is a home, with limited space, and we want to offer an intimate gathering, there is a maximum number of guests whom we can accommodate, which necessitates a registration from all guests. These is an adult only evening. Later in the year, we will be offering an opportunity with children.

Please register by Sunday, February 7 by following the link <http://whoozin.com/FPT-PJV-UNFY>. If you have any questions, please contact Christa Fairfield at christa.fairfield@stbonaventure.net.

LITURGY & PRAYER

JUBILEE YEAR OF MERCY
January 31, 2016
Fourth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Rave reviews greeted Jesus' first hometown homily proclaiming a year of God's mercy, but the mood turned violent when he went on to declare that God's mercy embraces outsiders; it rejects distinctions between citizen and foreigner, acceptable and unworthy, even sinner and saint. Far from being anyone's personal possession, God's kingdom is open to everyone, God's love unconditional, God's mercy boundless. By this Jubilee Year of Mercy, Pope Francis repeats Jesus' challenge in today's Gospel to broaden our horizons until our vision matches Jesus' vision of every sinner as a potential saint, and each suffering stranger as our neighbor. Jesus, says Pope Francis, continually went beyond the law, keeping company with public sinners and even sharing meals with them to demonstrate that God's mercy is "the beating heart of the Gospel" (Misericordiae Vultus, 12). To be truly Jesus' disciples, such unconditional love and boundless mercy must also be at the center of all we say and do.

IT IS TIME TO RECYCLE LAST YEAR'S PALMS

As Lent approaches, you are invited to gather all of your old palms and bring them back to be burned on the day before Ash Wednesday (which is sometimes called Shrove Tuesday). The ashes from these palms will be used on Ash Wednesday. Palms can be brought to the office during the week or placed in the basket you will find in the foyer when you come to Mass.

Couples are invited to attend the next weekend on February 20 & 21, 2016. It is never too early to attend a weekend. It is usually recommended that couples attend at least 3 months before the wedding. This is a wonderful opportunity to discuss and discern your future life together. The cost is $125/couple. Contact Matthew & Stacey Remington (672-4006) for more information, or to register for the weekend.

■ 2016 MEN'S RETREAT: REGISTRATION OPEN!

Registration is now open for the 2016 St. Bonaventure Men's Retreat, which will be held March 4-6 at San Damiano Retreat Center in Danville. Our theme this year, “Merciful Like the Father,” is inspired by the Jubilee Year of Mercy. Our retreat master will be Fr. Leo Edgerly, pastor of Corpus Christi parish in Oakland, CA. ■ CONTEMPLATIVE PRAYER

Let us begin the New Year spending time with God in quiet prayer. Give yourself the opportunity to sit quietly with God – not asking for anything and letting the worries and busyness of the world go away. We have two opportunities during the week to practice Contemplative Prayer in the Chapel. We start with a short reflection, enter into 20 minutes of silent prayer and end with the Our Father. Join us Tuesday from 4:05-4:30pm and/or Thursday (a change from Wednesday) from 7:15-7:45am. Just come when you can. Call Eileen (672-5800 x2217) if you have questions.

■ COUPLES WHO WANT TO BE MARRIED IN THE CHURCH

Mark your calendar now for Saturday, June 18, 2016 at 2:00p.m.

For the past couple of years, we have offered the opportunity for couples married civilly to participate in a Communal Marriage Blessing. It is a beautiful experience and we would like to continue this offering.

June 18 will be a communal renewal of vows at a Wedding Mass, followed by a reception.

Many young married couples who come to celebrate the baptism of their children have not been married in the church. If interested, we ask you to follow up by speaking first to Eileen Limberg (925-672-5800 x2217) before February 15. She will put you in contact with one of the priests or deacons. You can designate whichever priest or deacon whom you would like to get you started.

What do you need to do? What do you need to know? Those who come forward will help decide on details and specifics of the celebration.

Items:

- Participation in a Saturday retreat.
- Normal application forms for being married in the church need to be filled out.
- Normal witness forms need to be filled out.
- Selection of two official witnesses is required.
- The Blessing of the Marriage will be entered into St. Bonaventure's Marriage Register
- The couple may invite as many guests as they wish
- There is no expense except a donation to the church, if the couple wishes
- Couples will help prepare the ceremony and reception.

Put your wedding celebration in the church on your calendar – Saturday, June 18, 2:00p.m.

■ MARRIAGE ENCOUNTER

■ LUCAS 4,21-30

En aquel tiempo, después de que Jesús leyó en la sinagoga un pasaje del libro de Isaías, dijo: “Hoy mismo se ha cumplido este pasaje de la Escritura que ustedes acaban de oír”.

Todos le daban su aprobación y admiraban su sabiduría de las palabras que salían de sus labios, y se preguntaban: “¿No es éste el hijo de José?”

Jesús les dijo: “Seguramente me dirán aquel refrán: ‘Médico cúbate a ti mismo’ y haz aquí, en tu propia tierra, todos esos prodigios que hemos oído que has hecho en Cafarnaúm”. Y añadió: “Yo les aseguro que nadie es profeta en su tierra. Había ciertamente en Israel muchas viudas en los tiempos de Elías, cuando faltó la lluvia durante tres años y medio, y hubo un hambre terrible en todo el país; sin embargo, a ninguna de ellas fue enviado Elías, sino a una viuda que vivía en Sarepta, ciudad de Sidón. Había muchos leprosos en Israel, en tiempos del profeta Eliseo; sin embargo, ninguno de ellos fue curado sino Naamán, que era de Siria”.

Al oír esto, todos los que estaban en la sinagoga se llenaron de ira, y levantándose, lo sacaron de la ciudad y lo llevaron hasta un barranco del monte, sobre el que estaba construida la ciudad, para despeñarlo. Pero él, pasando por en medio de ellos, se alejó de allí.

En la lectura de Jeremías 1:4-19, está escrito la profecía de lo que iba a pasar a Jesús y como debía de actuar con autoridad, porque Dios estaría a su lado. En la lectura del profeta Jeremías dice: “Te harán la guerra, pero no podrán contigo, porque yo estoy a tu lado para salvarte” desde antes de formarte en el seno materno, te conozco; desde antes de que nacieras, te consagré como profeta para las naciones.

Cíñete y prepárate; ponte en pie y diles lo que yo te mando. No temas, no titubees delante de ellos, para que yo no te quebrante. Así se trate de los reyes de Judá, como de sus jefes, de sus sacerdotes o de la gente del campo; te harán la guerra pero no podrán contigo, porque ya te he hecho ciudad fortificada, columna de hierro y muralla de bronce.

La Iglesia cristiana ha entendido que Jesús es el cumplimiento de esta promesa. Jeremías apunta claramente a la presencia profética como precursora del acontecimiento de Cristo.

Después de treinta años de vivir una vida sencilla, de trabajo, de familia, Jesús emprende el camino, emprende su misión de instaurar el Reino de Dios. Deja todo atrás y comienza su vida pública, curando, enseñando, haciendo caminar a los que no podían caminar, dándoles de comer a los que no tenían y haciendo mirar a los que no podían mirar. Había llegado el momento de anunciar el Reino de Dios, de dar las pistas necesarias para que todo el pueblo alcanzara su salvación, que existiera “un bienestar integral” en todos los seres humanos especialmente en los oprimidos y marginados. Dios les ayude. Diácono Mariano Preza

■ FRASES DEL PAPA FRANCISCO

“¿Es verdad que en las diversas situaciones y circunstancias de la vida tenemos en nosotros los mismos sentimientos de Jesús? Por ejemplo, cuando sufrimos algún mal o cualquier afrenta, ¿conseguimos reaccionar sin animosidad y perdonar de corazón a quien nos pide excusas? ¡Qué difícil es perdonar! ‘¡Me la pagarás!’ esa palabra viene de dentro.”

■ AÑO JUBILAR DE LA MISERICORDIA

Jesús proclama la misericordia de Dios, pero el estado de ánimo se tornó violento cuando él fue a declarar que la misericordia de Dios abarca a los forasteros; rechaza la distinción entre ciudadano y extranjero, aceptable e indigno, incluso el pecador y el Santo. Lejos de ser la posesión personal de nadie, el Reino de Dios está abierto a todo el mundo, con amor incondicional, sin límites es la misericordia de Dios. En este Año Jubilar de la Misericordia, El Papa Francisco repite el desafío de Jesús en el Evangelio de hoy al ampliar nuestros horizontes hasta que nuestra visión coin-cida con la visión de Jesús de cada pecador como un santo potencial y cada sufrimiento desconocido como nuestro. Jesús, continuamente dice el Papa Francisco, fue más allá de la ley, estando en público en compañía con los pecadores y aún compartiendo las comidas con ellos demostrando la misericordia de Dios que es “el corazón del Evangelio” (Misericordiae Vultus, 12). Para ser verdaderamente discípulos de Jesús, tal amor incondicional y misericordia sin límites deben ser también el centro de todo que lo decimos y hacemos.

Las cenizas obtenidas de quemarlas se utilizarán el Miércoles de Ceniza. Las palmas del año pasado pueden ser llevadas a la oficina durante la semana o colocadas en la canasta que hay en el vestíbulo de la Iglesia cuando vengan a Misa.
