THOUGHTS FROM FR. OSCAR ROJAS

WITHOUT ME YOU CANNOT DO ANYTHING

In today's Gospel Jesus gives this beautiful example "I am the true vine, and my Father is the vine grower." It means he is connected to his Father in heaven. He does what his Father wants him to do. As much as the grower cares for the vine, it will produce in abundance. The vine feels the care of the grower and it grows leafy, healthy, and strong. God is the perfect grower as Jesus, who is the perfect vine, is a fruitful vine. We are connected to the vine and we have become his branches. Jesus said "You are already pruned because of the word that I spoke to you. Remain in me, as I remain in you." What beautiful reminder that we are pruned and ready to bear fruit. Since the day we received the sacrament of Baptism, we inherited the perfect vine and became a branch of the vine.

What kind of branch are we? Are we a strong or weak branch? A strong branch is the one which is always ready to produce fruits and remain attached to the vine. Strong winds may come and remove all the leaves, and the wind might break the branch, but it remains faithful to the vine. The grower must be happy because the wind could not break this branch, which will produce in abundance. However, there are also weak branches which will not endure the strong wind. They will break easily and become infertile. A broken branch may suffer several things: it will remain attached, but will not produce much because it will not receive enough nourishment from the vine, or this branch will die slowly because of its lack of nourishment, or the wind will amputate the branch. Once the branch falls, there is no opportunity to produce fruits or remain attached to the vine.

Dear brothers and sisters, today's Gospel should make us reflect how connected we are to the perfect vine. Daily we are facing challenges, obstacles and temptations that can separate us from the vine. Jesus remains within us because we received him on the day of our baptism, although it is not easy to live our life fully doing God's will. How can we remain strong and fruitful branches? We remain strong and fruitful through prayer, living the sacraments and being fed with his precious body and blood. Receiving his body and blood, our branches will be energized and remain strong in the face of many challenges and tribulations. There are branches who are slowly dying, because what feeds the branch is the poison of anger, hatred, envy, lust, resentment, nastiness and selfishness. Do not let this poison of evil make you an unfruitful branch. In the second reading, John says "Children, let us love not in word or speech, but in deed and truth." It is not enough to be united to the vine. We need to bear fruits and do what pleases God. "Without me you can do nothing." If we are not in relationship with the vine, we cannot do anything. If we are almost falling down we cannot do anything without Jesus. In my personal experience, sometimes tiredness disconnects me from the vine who is Jesus because I do not feel the desire to pray. But when I realize prayer is the heart of my life, I pray. I feel my spirit recharged and ready to begin my activities. Truly, we cannot do anything without him.

SIN MI NADA PUEDEN HACER

En el Evangelio de hoy Jesús nos da un maravilloso ejemplo “Yo soy vid verdadera

y mi Padre es el viñador”. Esto significa Jesús está conectado con su padre en el cielo. Jesús hace la voluntad que su Padre quiere que el haga. Entre más cuide la viña el cultivador le producirá en abundancia. La viña siente el cuidado que su cultivador le da, y esta crece fuerte y frondosa. Dios es el cultivador perfecto y Jesús es la perfecta vid verdadera. Nosotros como hijos e hijas de Dios estamos conectados a la viña y nos hemos convertido en ramas de la vid. Jesús dice “Ustedes ya están purificados por las palabras que les he dicho. Permanezcan en mí y yo en ustedes”. Que hermosas palabras de Jesús recordarnos que estamos apodados y listos para dar más frutos. Desde el momento en que recibimos el Sacramento del Bautismo estamos injertados a la vid perfecta y nos convertimos en ramas de la viña.

El Evangelio nos invita a reflexionar que tipo de ramas somos. Hay ramas que son fuertes y otras que son débiles. Una rama fuerte es aquella rama que siempre permanece lista para dar frutos y permanece unida a su vid. Vienen fuertes vientos y la sacude que bota todas sus hojas que casi quiebra la rama, pero permanece fiel a su vid. El viñador estará muy contento que el viento no logro quebrar la rama que más iba producir. Con más alegría el viñador cuidara su viñedo. Por otra parte, existen ramas débiles en la viña que aguantan vientos fuertes y fácilmente las quiebra y quedan infértiles de producir buenos frutos. Una rama quebrada podría sufrir dos cambios: permanecer con vida, pero sin producir mucho porque no va recibir la suficiente vida de la vid o la rama se ira muriendo lentamente porque no recibe vida y el viento la terminará cortando poco a poco. Una vez que la rama se cortó de la vid: no habrá más oportunidad para producir frutos.

Queridos hermanos y hermanas, el Evangelio de hoy debe hacernos reflexionar de qué manera estamos conectados con la vid. Diariamente nos enfrentamos con muchos desafíos, obstáculos, y tentaciones que nos amputan de mantenernos unidos a la viña de Dios. Jesús permanece en nosotros porque lo recibimos el día de nuestro Bautismo. Aunque no es fácil vivir una vida completamente haciendo la voluntad porque el enemigo quiere alejarnos de Dios. Debemos preguntarnos, como podemos permanecer fuertes y fructíferas ramas. Permanecemos fuertes y fructíferos a través de la oración, viviendo los sacramentos y alimentándonos del Cuerpo y la Sangre de Cristo. Al recibir su Cuerpo y su Sangre nos convertimos en ramas saludables y fuertes para confrontar muchos desafíos en la vida. Hay ramas que van muriendo lentamente porque se alimentan del veneno del enojo, odio, rencor, envidia, lujuria, resentimiento, groserías y egoísmo. No dejemos que el veneno del enemigo nos haga infértil de dar frutos. En la segunda lectura de San Juan dice: Hijos míos, no amemos solamente de palabra, amemos de verdad y con las obras. No es suficiente estar unidos a la vid, necesitamos dar frutos y hacer aquello que le agrada a Dios. “Sin Jesús no podemos hacer nada”. Si no construimos una fuerte relación con la vid no vamos a poder hacer nada. Si estamos cayendo y no confiamos en Dios, no podemos hacer nada. En mi experiencia personal, algunas veces el cansancio me desconecta de Dios. Hoy estoy cansado no siento deseo de orar, pero después me doy cuenta que la oración es el corazón de mi vida: me levanto a orar. Después me siento lleno de energía y listo para continuar mis actividades. En mi experiencia personal verdaderamente no podemos hacer nada si no estamos conectados a la vid, que es Jesús.
