THOUGHTS FROM FR. MATHEW VELLANKAL

On May 14, I will turn 60, by the grace of God. I am immensely grateful to our loving God for the gift of life and the many blessings that I have received throughout these past six decades. Please join me for a Mass of Thanksgiving on Saturday, May 12 at 5 p.m. About 15 priest-friends are expected to concelebrate the Mass.

From May 14 to 29, I will be away for a pilgrimage with 41 persons. We will be visiting Italy, Bosnia and Poland. Be assured of my prayers in all those holy places.

Today's Scripture passages declare the profound truth that those who believe in Christ are to obey his commandment of love – "Love others as I have loved you."

In the first reading, Peter teaches us that God shows no partiality in His love and that there are no boundaries to abiding in love. God loves everyone, both the Jews and the Gentiles, and He wants everyone to be saved through His son, Jesus. That is why God welcomed the Roman centurion Cornelius as the first non-Jew to become a Christian.

In the second reading, John defines God as love and explains that He expressed His love for mankind by sending His son to die for us humans "as expiation for our sins." This Divine love gives us the command as well as duty to love one another as we have been loved by God. Since God has loved us first, we can and should love God in return, love ourselves and love one another.

After telling the parable of the vine and branches, Jesus, in today's Gospel, teaches the disciples that they are to obey his commandment of love just as Jesus has obeyed his Heavenly Father's will, by fulfilling His commandments and remaining inseparably bonded with his Father. Jesus' unconditional, forgiving, selfless, sacrificial love for us must be the criterion of our love for others. The highest expression of this love is our willingness to lay down our lives as Jesus did, for people who don't deserve it. The goal and result of our abiding in love, in God, will be perfect joy. Jesus calls us friends. He tells us that he has chosen us, and that, if we use Jesus' name, we can ask the Father for anything. We need to cultivate an abiding and loving friendship with Jesus and to express it in our relationships with others by loving them and showing them trust, faithfulness, equality, forgiveness, joy and sacrifice.

We need to be persons for others. Jesus demonstrated the love of God, his Father, for us by living for us and dying for us. Hence, as Jesus' disciples, we are to be persons for others, sacrificing our time, talents and lives for others.

PARISH LIFE THOUGHTS

WELCOME NEW DIRECTOR OF CHILDREN'S FAITH FORMATION

We are happy to announce Eileen Limberg has accepted the position as our new Director of Children's Faith Formation. Eileen has been our Adult Faith Formation Director and she will be transferring her talents to her new ministry.

Eileen grew up in our parish family where she was confirmed. As a teenager, she volunteered as a catechist to our children. She went off to college and earned her Master's Degree in Catholic Theology, then worked in the Diocese of Santa Rosa as Associate Director of Religious Education. She returned to St. Bonaventure and again volunteered to work with our children before joining our staff.

The combination of Eileen's passion for bringing people closer to Christ, love of our parish children and formal education will be a great gift to our parish families.

Please hold Eileen in your prayers as she steps into this new ministry.

A NEW STRUCTURE

With our Director of Children's Faith Formation, Rosann Halick, leaving and Eileen Limberg moving into this ministry, the Leadership Staff of the parish evaluated the current structure of the responsibilities that Eileen was managing. With continued inflation and minor increases in parish giving, we continue to work to balance our budget each year.

Wanting to continue investing in our Adult Evangelization and Formation, we looked at several options. The Leadership Staff decided the best structure was to hire a part-time staff member to coordinate our Adult Faith Formation and Initiation programs. We will look at allocating the other work that Eileen did to volunteer coordinators under the facilitation of other staff members. These will be additional responsibilities for staff who have full schedules, but we feel this is the best solution giving the current financial situation.

WELCOME NEW COORDINATOR OF ADULT FAITH FORMATION

We are happy to share that our long-time parish family member, Gina Cattalini, has accepted the part-time position of Coordinator of Adult Faith Formation. Gina will be part of our Leadership Staff team and responsible for our RCIA program, organizing and managing our Adult Faith Formation offerings and programs and creating our adult faith formation communications, including our newsletter. Gina will be working 24 hours a week, with office hours. She will begin on May 1st.

Gina has been a member of our parish since 1999 with her husband, Peter Nixon, and her son, Joseph, and daughter Megan. Gina studied Systemic Theology and Biblical Studies at the Graduate Theological Union in Berkeley and has done course work at the Pastoral School of Ministry. As a volunteer, she has been in leadership roles in our Bonfire Ministry, Returning Catholics Programs, Teen Confirmation and High School programs, and RCIA.

Gina is inspired to bring people to Christ, gifted in meeting people where they are and ignites both in others. We are blessed to have her bring her passion and talents to our staff.

Please welcome Gina and keep her new ministry in your prayers. Her email address is gcattalini@gmail.com.

PENSAMIENTOS DEL PADRE MATHEW VELLANKAL

El 14 de mayo, cumpliré 60 años por la gracia de Dios. Estoy inmensamente agradecido a nuestro Dios amoroso, por el don de la vida y las muchas bendiciones que he recibido a lo largo de las últimas seis décadas. Por favor, únase a mí en una Misa de Acción de Gracias el sábado, 12 de mayo a las 5 p.m. Se espera que alrededor de 15 sacerdotes amigos concelebrarán la Misa.

Del 14 al 29 de mayo, partiré para una peregrinación con 41 personas. Vamos a visitar Italia, Bosnia y Polonia y estén seguros de mis oraciones en todos esos lugares sagrados.

Los pasajes de las Escrituras de hoy declaran la profunda verdad de que aquellos que creen en Cristo deben obedecer su mandamiento de amor: "Ama a los demás como yo te he amado".

En la Primera lectura, Pedro nos enseña que Dios no muestra parcialidad en su amor y que no hay límites para permanecer en el amor. Dios ama a todos, tanto a los judíos como a los gentiles, y quiere que todos sean salvos por medio de su hijo, Jesús. Es por eso que Dios dio la bienvenida al centurión romano Cornelio como el primer no judío en convertirse al cristianismo.

En la Segunda lectura, Juan define a Dios como amor y explica que expresó su amor por la humanidad al enviar a su hijo a morir por nosotros los humanos "como expiación por nuestros pecados". Este amor divino nos da la orden y el deber de amarnos unos a otros como hemos sido amados por Dios. Como Dios nos amó primero, podemos y debemos corresponder su amor; amar a Dios, amarnos nosotros mismos y amarnos unos a otros.

Después de contar la parábola de la vid y las ramas, Jesús, en el Evangelio de hoy, enseña a los discípulos que deben obedecer su mandamiento de amor, así como

Jesús obedeció la voluntad de su Padre Celestial al cumplir sus mandamientos y permanecer inseparablemente unido a su Padre. El amor incondicional, indulgente, desinteresado y sacrificado de Jesús por nosotros debe ser el criterio de nuestro amor por los demás. La expresión más elevada de este amor es nuestra voluntad de dar nuestras vidas como lo hizo Jesús, por personas que no lo merecen. La meta y el resultado de permanecer en amor, en Dios, será la alegría perfecta. Jesús nos llama amigos. Él nos dice que nos ha elegido, y que, si usamos el nombre de Jesús, podemos pedirle al Padre cualquier cosa que necesitamos para cultivar una amistad duradera y amorosa con Jesús y expresarla en nuestras relaciones con los demás, amándolos y mostrándoles confianza, fidelidad, igualdad, perdón, alegría y sacrificio.

Necesitamos ser personas para los otros. Jesús demostró el amor de Dios, su Padre, por nosotros al vivir para nosotros y morir por nosotros. Por lo tanto, como discípulos de Jesús, debemos ser personas para los demás, sacrificando nuestro tiempo, talentos y vida por los demás.
